A strong management team at your service

Dear partner,

Since making the official announcement of the merger of La Capitale and SSQ Insurance on July 3, 2020, we've been working very hard on our new organizational structure in order to better meet your needs and those of customer.

I am very pleased to introduce you to my new management team, whose mandate will officially begin on August 3, 2020. This team, with solid experience and in-depth knowledge of the market and the industry, will work with me in managing the individual insurance and financial services sector for the new organization.

Questions?

We realize that a merger like ours may prompt various questions.
